2 Solemnities of Obligation (Canon 1246)

In the Dioceses of England and Wales, when the solemnities of the Epiphany, Saints Peter and Paul, the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary, or All Saints fall on a Saturday or Monday, the solemnity is to be observed and the precept discharged on the Sunday. With effect from the First Sunday of Advent 2017 the Epiphany of the Lord was restored to 6th January (except when it falls on a Saturday or Monday, as above) and the Ascension of the Lord to the Thursday after the Sixth Sunday of Easter. The Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ is celebrated on the Sunday following Trinity Sunday. The Solemnity of the Nativity of the Lord is always celebrated on 25th December.

Different arrangements apply in churches and chapels pertaining to the Bishopric of the Forces.

3 Masses for Sundays and Holydays anticipated the previous evening, and Vigil Masses

Mass celebrated on the evening before a Sunday or solemnity may be that appointed for the day itself, or for the Sunday or solemnity following, in which case it is a Mass in Anticipation. Some solemnities have proper Vigil Masses, which, if a Mass is celebrated on the evening before the solemnity, must be celebrated.

The solemnities with proper Vigil Masses are:

- The Nativity of the Lord
- The Epiphany of the Lord
- Easter
- The Ascension of the Lord
- Pentecost
- The Nativity of Saint John the Baptist
- Saints Peter and Paul
- The Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary

Each has prayers and Readings proper to the Vigil, and different prayers and Readings proper to the Mass of the Day. Christmas has four proper Masses (Vigil, Night, Dawn, Day); Easter has an extended Vigil Mass with eight Readings before the Gospel; Pentecost has an extended Vigil Mass with five Readings before the Gospel. The Easter Vigil should not begin before nightfall and should end before dawn.

When the Mass of an anticipated Sunday or solemnity falls on a solemnity, the Mass to be celebrated is determined by the higher rank indicated in the table of liturgical days given at the front of The Roman Missal. For the good of the faithful it is always permissible to celebrate the Mass of the Sunday in preference to the solemnity.

4 Celebrating the Anniversary of the Consecration of the Church

For those churches which have been consecrated, the annual celebration of the church's consecration takes place on the day on which the church was consecrated. For those churches for which this date is known, a note is made in the Ordo and this celebration takes precedence over any other celebrations on that day. Where the date isn't known, but the church has been consecrated, the celebration is kept on 22nd October each year.

The anniversary is celebrated with the rank of solemnity:

White: At Mass: Gloria, Readings of the solemnity, Creed, Preface of the Dedication of a Church

The Readings are taken from those given in Lectionary volume II, p.1392ff; the prayers are taken from the Roman Missal 'Common of the Dedication of a Church' p.1091ff. For convenience the Readings may be taken from those given for the Feast of the Dedication of the Lateran Basilica, 9th November (Lectionary volume II, p.1250ff). There are always two Readings proclaimed before the Gospel.

5 Celebrating the Church's Patron or Title on Sunday

The celebration of the church's patron saint or title (of the Trinity, of Our Lord, or of Our Lady) may be transferred from a weekday to a Sunday provided the following conditions are fulfilled:

- The patron saint or title has the favour of popular devotion
- The Sunday to which it is transferred is a Sunday 'of the year' (in ordinary time)
- The Church has been consecrated

If the above conditions are fulfilled, all Masses at which a congregation is present on that Sunday may be Masses of the patron saint or title.

Whenever the patron saint or title is celebrated (either on the appointed day or when transferred to the Sunday) it is celebrated with the rank of solemnity:

White: At Mass: Gloria, Readings of the Solemnity, Creed, Preface of the Solemnity

The readings are taken from those given in the Lectionary, with the addition of a second reading (if one isn't already provided) from the common readings; the prayers are taken from the Roman Missal.

7 Cycle of Prayer

The liturgical year has been divided into six periods. We are asked to pray for certain intentions throughout the period, as shown in the notes at the beginning of each period. At Mass on the days of special prayer it is sufficient to announce the day during the opening remarks and to include a suitable petition in the intercessions.

8 At Mass

Sundays: Gloria (except in Advent or Lent); Readings of the Sunday; Creed; Preface of Sundays; vestments of the colour of the Sunday; one Mass to be offered by parish priests as Missa Pro Populo.

Solemnities of Obligation: Gloria; Readings of the solemnity; Creed; Preface of the solemnity; vestments of the colour of the solemnity; one Mass to be offered by parish priests as Missa Pro Populo.

Solemnities: Gloria; Readings of the solemnity; Creed; Preface of the solemnity; vestments of the colour of the solemnity.

Feasts: Gloria; Readings of the feast; no Creed; Preface of the feast; vestments of the colour of the feast.

Memorials and Optional Memorials: no Gloria; Readings of the weekday (except where there are proper Readings for the memorial being celebrated; or where there are proper Readings for the optional memorial and this is being celebrated). For pastoral reasons, other Readings may be chosen, such as those suggested in the Lectionary for saints on memorials, or Readings which are more appropriate to children for the celebration of a school Mass, provided that the cycle of weekday Readings is followed in the main; no Creed; Common Preface or of the memorial; vestments of the colour of the memorial or optional memorial.

Commemorations: no Gloria; Readings of the season; no Creed; Preface of the season; vestments of the colour of the season.

Other considerations: the Gloria and the Creed may always be included when Mass is celebrated on special occasions, and at such a Mass the vestments may always be of the colour of the celebration, rather than the day or season, except for Requiem Masses when violet vestments (or black, or white) are used.

Episcopal Celebrations: at Masses during which the Sacrament of Confirmation is conferred the guidance provided by Bishop's House is followed. Likewise at Masses during which the Sacrament of Ordination is conferred, or for other particular Masses celebrated by the Bishop of Nottingham, advice should be sought in good time from Bishop's House.

9 Nuptial Masses

Except on Sundays and solemnities the Nuptial Mass (with white vestments) may be celebrated in full. On Sundays and solemnities the Mass of the day is celebrated, with the nuptial blessing and, if opportune, the final proper formula of blessing. Even when Nuptial Mass is not permitted, one of the nuptial Readings may be chosen for catechesis, except on the solemnities of the Nativity of the Lord, the Epiphany of the Lord, the days of Holy Week, Easter Day, the days of the Easter Octave, the Ascension of the Lord, Pentecost, the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ, Saints Peter and Paul, the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary, or All Saints, when the Readings must be those of the solemnity.

10 Statement on Marriage

Revised 29th August 2020

By order of the Bishop, the following statement is to be published or read at Masses on at least one of the weekends in each of February and October each year.

Marriage is a lifelong vocation of a man and a woman to a community of life and love open to children, and, between the baptized, it is a Sacrament. Aware of the many pressures today which can endanger family life, the Church is constantly concerned to make sure that those of you planning to marry are prepared as well as possible. We would like to remind those who wish to marry of the following:

1. It is important that a couple go to see their priest in good time before their wedding. Normally, at least six months' notice should be given.
2. Marriage preparation is carried out by the priest, often assisted by a group from the parish. Courses arranged on a Deanery basis are recommended.
3. Catholics are reminded of their obligation to preserve their faith and to do all they can within the unity of their partnership to have all their children baptized and brought up in the faith and practice of the Catholic Church.
4. Non-Catholic partners will be informed of this promise, but they are not asked to make this or any similar promise.
5. Dispensation for a marriage between a Catholic and a non-Catholic to take place in a non-Catholic church can be granted only for a serious reason. Couples who wish to marry in a non-Catholic church should discuss the matter with their priest in good time before their wedding day to see whether a dispensation could be granted.

All couples marrying these days need the support of the local Church. In this way they will be strengthened in their preparation for marriage, in celebrating their marriage, and in living out their covenant with one another.

We wish to thank all those married people who show such constancy and fidelity to their vocation of marriage. May their example inspire those planning to marry in the Church.

Bishop of Nottingham

12 Parish Financial Review

The weekend of 17th and 18th February has been proposed as an opportunity for every parish in the diocese to thank parishioners for what they give financially, and to encourage them to consider whether they might be able to increase their giving. This is an opportunity to encourage more people who are tax-payers to enhance their giving through Gift Aid. For further information published by the Finance Office, see the Wednesday Roundup or contact Bishop’s House directly.

13 Visiting Clergy

The practice of allowing clergy from outside the Diocese of Nottingham to concelebrate Mass or to assist at the celebration of the sacraments is to be encouraged whenever such clergy present themselves. On those one-off occasions when a priest wishes to concelebrate at a public Mass his celebrant should be seen, and the requested details noted on the relevant page of this Ordo; at the end of the year the Ordo should be preserved in the parish archive. For clergy from outside the diocese wishing to celebrate liturgies as the principal celebrant, or for those wishing to assist with liturgies on a more regular basis (such as summer supply), please contact Bishop’s House for the relevant procedure to be followed, including reference to the home diocese or Order, and safeguarding arrangements.

The Season of Lent

The period for fulfilling Easter Duties is from Ash Wednesday until Trinity Sunday

It is not permitted to adorn the altar with flowers during Lent, and musical instruments may only be played for the purpose of sustaining singing. On Laetare Sunday, solemnities and feasts exceptions may be made regarding flowers and music

For the celebration of marriages, the parish priest should alert spouses of the need to take into account the penitential character of this season

Cycle of Prayer during Lent, we pray for these intentions:

Candidates for the Sacraments

Women

The Needy and Hungry of the World

Penitents and Wanderers

Announce the local arrangements for Station Masses. The collection at these Masses will be for various Diocesan Charities, and is to be taken after the Reposition of the Blessed Sacrament and before Mass; payment to be sent to the Finance Office

The Paschal Triduum

29th-31st March – Proper Psalter – Schools' Word of the Week: Passion

Thursday 28th March (evening) _____

White MAUNDY THURSDAY – THE MASS OF THE LORD'S SUPPER

Before the Mass begins the Tabernacle is to be entirely emptied; holy water stoups likewise should be empty and votive candles and other sacramentals removed. All altars, save the High Altar and the altar in the Chapel of Repose, should be stripped before Mass begins

The Mass, which is to be celebrated in all parish churches, and in other churches and oratories only where it can be celebrated with dignity and with the participation of a good-sized congregation, is not to begin until evening, unless the Bishop gives permission otherwise

At Mass all is done as in the Roman Missal, pp.330ff. Gloria (during which the church bells may be rung after the intonation, and then silenced until the Easter Vigil); Readings of the Mass of the Lord's Supper; the Creed isn't recited; the Washing of Feet (if it takes place) occurs after the Homily using twelve members of the community; during the Procession of Gifts offerings for the poor may be brought forward; Proper Preface (with proper inserts for Eucharistic Prayer I)

After Holy Communion has been distributed the Blessed Sacrament reserved for Good Friday remains on the altar until after the Prayer after Communion, at which time a Procession is formed to the Chapel of Repose. The Blessed Sacrament is reserved in the tabernacle with adoration during the night, although if this continues after midnight it should be without solemnity

The altar is stripped after Mass is concluded

Office: Vespers need not be said by those present at the Mass of the Lord's Supper
