Hear: By the end of this unit of study, pupils will know: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • That the Creation stories in Genesis use symbolism to explain the relationship between God, human beings, and the world. • That in the first account of the Creation one day is 'made holy' (Gen 2:3). • That the Church teaches that 'Creation is the common work of the Holy Trinity'. By the end of this unit of study pupils will have encountered the following key texts: • The first account of the Creation, Genesis 1:1-2:4. • Extracts from either Psalm 8 or 19 in praise of Creation. • In an age-appropriate way, LS 66 and 88 Believe: By the end of this unit of study pupils will know that the Church teaches: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • God is the Creator of the Universe who made everything out of 'free and unselfish love' (YC 2). • That all human beings are made in God's image and all people have dignity and are created equal. • A way in which human beings' image (imitate) God is through care for each other, and that caring for Creation is one of the ways we care for each other. Additionally, failing to care for Creation is a way people turn away from God's love. • The dignity of all human beings is one of the principles of Catholic Social Teaching. Celebrate: By the end of this unit of study pupils will know: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Extracts from a psalm of Creation. • How the praise of Creation is expressed in the prayer and Liturgy of the Church (e.g., St Francis's Canticle of the Creatures; the Offertory prayers; a Prayer for our Earth in Laudato Si') Live: By the end of this unit of study, pupils will know: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Ways in which we can show care for God's world (stewardship) as part of our care for each other. • Ways in which people can give thanks for the blessing of Creation, including spending time in prayer. 	Understand	   By the end of this unit of study, pupils will be able to: Revisit and remember the first Creation story from Genesis, recognising the author's use of poetic language to describe how the world was formed. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Encounter the belief that human beings are made 'in the image of God' (Gen 1:27) and talk about what this might mean. (RVE) • Make simple links between the first Creation story, the belief that all human beings are created equal, and an expression of the principle of Catholic Social Teaching about human dignity. (RVE) • Describe stewardship by making simple links between Genesis 1:26-31 and people's actions today (LS 88 on 'ecological virtues'). (RVE) • Using some religious vocabulary, describe how either a psalm or a prayer they have studied praises Creation. • Recognise that in Laudato Si', Pope Francis teaches that human beings are called to have a loving relationship with God, with each other, and with the world (see LS 66).
