Why is prayer and almsgiving important in all faiths, as a way of working towards the common good?

- Can you explain (using some theological vocabulary) the principle of the Common Good and Catholic Social Teaching?
- Describe and give reasons for the way Christians work together with people with different worldviews towards the common good.
- Can you describe and explain how Hindu beliefs encourage people to live a good life?
- Consider how these beliefs link with the principle of the Common Good?

dialogue	The Vedas
Dharma	moksha
Common Good	karma
Catholic Social Teaching

Can you recall how prayer and almsgiving is important in any other faith (think Judaism, Islam or Sikhism)?